Pearl River Foundry, State Street, Jackson, Miss.

WACO, TEXAS, September 15, 1873.

DEAR SIR: Yours bearing date September 1, came duly to hand. I received the plows shipped by you in good time, and have given them a tolerable fair trial, and am satisfied they are the plows for the sandy valley here. I have recommended the plows highly, and have loaned mine to neighbors, and they are well pleased with them. They turn the dirt to please, and I think will be the cheapest plow for the sandy land, and that is what farmers in this county want.

Very respectfully,
ASA H. RHODES.
